The pro se plaintiff, Willie C. Glover, was a pretrial detainee at the Aiken County Detention Center during the time of the matters alleged in his complaint. He initiated this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 contending that he was discriminated against by the defendants as a result of his race and religious beliefs.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a Report and Recommendation wherein he suggests that this court should dismiss this action with prejudice. The Magistrate Judge notes that while the plaintiff was advised of the importance of responding to the defendants' motion for summary judgment,² that the plaintiff failed to do so. In fact, the order was returned to the Clerk of Court marked "Return to Sender." The plaintiff was earlier advised of the requirement to keep the Clerk notified in writing of any address changes, however, the plaintiff has failed to do so.

The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the court incorporates such without a recitation.

The plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on July 10, 2009. However, the plaintiff has not filed any objections with the prescribed time limits.

After a careful review of the record, the applicable law, and the Report and Recommendation, the court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation to be proper. Accordingly, the Report and Recommendation is incorporated herein by reference and this action is dismissed with prejudice pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Joseph F. Anderson, Jr.
United States District Judge

July 30, 2009
Columbia, South Carolina

² An order was issued pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) notifying plaintiff of the summary dismissal procedure and possible consequences if he failed to adequately respond to the motion for summary judgment. Plaintiff did not respond to the motion.
